

Department of Tourism & Hospitality Management

Inaugurates

'HUNAR SE ROZGAR TAK' PROGRAMME, 2022

Friday, July 1, 2022

The department of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi inaugurated the 'HUNAR SE ROZGAR TAK' Programme on July 1, 2022.

HSRT is a programme which was launched by the Ministry of Tourism in the year 2009-10 for creation of employable skills amongst youth. This initiative has helped upgrade the skills relevant to the hospitality and tourism Sector in the country.

The Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management has provided a platform to the students who have no career options as such but have dreams in their eyes to be skilful and eventually employable.

The department has organized various training programmes in the hospitality trade sector such as in- (1) Food production, (2) food & beverage services & (3) Skill Testing and Certification Programme and many more to start in the near future. This year, the HSRT Programme will be organised to train students in Front Office operations. To mark the inauguration of the programme, the holy Qirat was recited by Mohd. Yunus Khan.

The inaugural function was graced by our distinguished dignitaries of our university namely Registrar and Dean-Faculty of Engineering & Technology.

All the honourable guests were felicitated with a token of appreciation by Dr. Sarah Husain and Professor Nimit Choudhary.

The session took its shape with the introduction of the programme 'Hunar se Rozgar Tak' followed by the opening address of the speakers by Dr. Aarti. Further, the welcome address was facilitated by Dr. Sarah Husain, Head of the Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management. She embraced the occasion with her stimulating and encouraging words. She asserted that the HSRT programme will play a prominent part in the life of all the attendees and assured the students who have enrolled for this program will certainly have bright prospects in the hospitality industry and this program will serve as a powerful means of their career progression in near future.

The chief guest of the programme, Professor Nazim Husain Al-Jafri, Registrar (JMI) energised students with his wise remarks. He stated that as such we live in a world of vast opportunities, stark contradictions and grave challenges. In this light, passivism and apathy are not options or choices that we can afford or condone. So this HSRT programme is an initiative with a strong sense of purpose which would help candidates who could not go for further studies for this reason or the other to make them financially independent and socially confident. He strongly believes that such an initiative by the Ministry of tourism and its collaboration with Jamia Millia Islamia will continually enhance the skill content, so necessary today in India.

Further, the guest of honour Professor Ibraheem, Dean-Faculty of Engineering & Technology (JMI) apprised the students that such an initiative which is driven by knowledge, skills and inspiration will gradually replace many of the external forces that appear, and sometimes seek, to control our destinies and bring a positive change in their lives and society at large. He claimed that this programme is going to be the best decision of their life.

Furthermore, Professor Nimit Chowdhary formally introduced the HSRT programme and apprised students that HSRT is a fruitful and meaningful training which will assist the students in honing their professional skills and grabbing job opportunities in the industry. He affirmed that everything has fallen in place and the students can now look forward to brighter days ahead. His remarks motivated and geared to be responsible learners to make the best of such an opportunity.

The session was an utter source of enlightenment for the audience. The session encouraged the students to dream, believe and be perseverant enough to chase one's dreams.

At the end, Dr. Vijay Kumar proposed his vote of thanks to the dignitaries so as to mark the conclusion to the programme.

Later, all the dignitaries and attendees headed for the group photo session and subsequently high tea.
