

Centre for North East Studies, MMAJ-Academy of International Studies,
Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi-110025

Requirement of one Senior Research Officer/Coordinator

The Centre for North East Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia, invites applications for the post of Senior Research Officer (SRO)-cum-Coordinator for its Sikkim Studies Programme.

Qualifications: Applicants must hold either a Phd or at minimum M. Phil and should be familiar with issues of the North East, particularly in the fields of politics, economy, social structures and the environment. In addition to secondary work, candidates should have conducted field work in the region and published a minimum of six research papers and journals.

Job Profile: To conduct research for programmes related to the Sikkim Studies Programme of the Centre in several issues including the following: Governance; Climate Change Issues; Social Stress and Coping Mechanisms; Borders; International Trade and the Look East Policy. The SRO-Coordinator will assist the Director of the Centre in the development and organization of workshops, seminars, conferences as well as collaborative research programme, cultural events, placements, lectures, publications and documentation and any other work entrusted by the Director to the SRO-Coordinator.

Remuneration: Rs. 40,000/- per month (Rupees Forty Thousand Only) (Consolidated)

Applications should be send to:

The Director,

Centre for North East Studies

Jamia Millia Islamia

New Delhi -110025

Or

Kaisiikokho@gmail.com

sanjoyha@gmail.com

Last date of submission: 30th April, 2012