

Centre for Early Childhood Education & Research (CECDR)
Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

April 30, 2013

The CECDR requires Research Investigators for the following in-house research projects:

1. Stress and Resilience in Street Children

No of Posts – 1

Duration – 8 months

Salary – Rs. 10,500/- pm (fixed)

Essential Qualifications – Post-Graduation in Psychology and a Good Academic Record with at least 55% marks in aggregate.

Desirable

- a. Research experience
- b. Familiarity in working with MS Word, MS Excel and SPSS
- c. Good conversational skills (Hindi and English)
- d. Familiarity in working with young children

2. An Investigation into the Dialectical Relationship between Children's Social Situation of Development and Pedagogical Practices in Schools

No of Posts – 1

Duration – 8 months

Salary – Rs. 10,500/- pm (fixed)

Essential Qualifications- Post-Graduation in Psychology/ Child Development/ Education or in allied disciplines and a Good Academic Record with at least 55% marks in aggregate.

Desirable

- a. Experience/ Knowledge of qualitative research methods
- b. Familiarity in working with MS Word
- c. Good conversational skills (Hindi and English)
- d. Familiarity in working with young children

Candidates possessing the essential qualifications may apply along with their latest CV to the Director, CECDR, Jamia Millia Islamia latest by May 10, 2013, indicating the name of the Project they wish to apply for, either through email (jmi.cecdr@gmail.com) or post. Shortlisted candidates shall be called for an interview for selection. In case the number of candidates is large, CECDR may devise suitable mechanism for shortlisting candidates that may include a written test.

Prof Zubair Meenai
Director