Notice

The following students who were on the waiting list for admission to civil services coaching programme 2014, are hereby informed that they may now contact the office of the Centre to complete their admission formalities by Monday, 24 February, 2014.

This is to be noted further that it will not be possible to provide hostel accommodation to male students as there are no seats available in the male wings as of now. However, if any seats fall vacant the same will be allotted strictly according to merit.

The female students may apply for hostel accommodation as some seats are available in the female wing. These seats will be allotted to them strictly according to the merit list. Female students should complete their hostel accommodation formalities by Monday, 24 February 2014.
