Office of the Registrar

No. AC-⁸⁽¹⁹⁾/2012

10 July 2012

Notification

In order to break a tie for admission to Postgraduate courses, it has been decided that in case when total marks obtained (written test + interview) by two or more candidates are identical, the higher marks in the Entrance Test will be used to break the tie. However, in case marks of the written test are also same, then all the candidates figuring in the tie will have to be admitted. The increased number of seats will be adjusted against the waiting list of the respective category, to the extent possible. This will not apply to those courses which are regulated by the respective Councils and the strength of which is sanctioned by the Councils. The Head of such Departments should separately seek clarification on breaking the tie.
