Bazme Tehqeeq organized the first of its many 'Empowering Research Through Book Review' sessions today on the 30th of July (Thursday) at 4 pm (ist) through Google meet.

The book reviewed and discussed was the celebrated intellectual and theorist Muhammad Asad's 'Road to Mecca' (Originally Published in 1954)

Mohammad Ali, a senior researcher in the department of Islamic studies out forth a pertinent view of not just the book and it's contents, but also delved into the authors intellectual intricacies.

Participation remained fairly strong where the research scholars were even joined by the Head of the Department, Prof. Syed Shahid Ali.

After what seemed a good 25 minutes of the review, participants very keenly rained various questions at the speaker thus testing his rigor in the subject and sometimes locking horns with the speaker at the intention of the books content.

It remained a healthy discussion giving due thanks to the conductor of the program and the vice president of the association Waseem Ahmed, who seamlessly coordinated the program. The secretary Hannan Salim was a motivating force behind this program.
