Press Release

JMI's Faculty of Law ranked at No.1 position by India Today magazine

The Faculty of Law of Jamia Millia Islamia has been ranked at No.1 position among the top 14 universities in the country by India Today magazine in its latest issue garnering an overall score of 100% for its academic and other performances.

Gujarat National Law University has been put at second position having scored 70.96%.

Despite being recent entity established in 1989, Jamia's Law Department has made significant progress – restructuring courses and syllabi, introducing new courses, experimenting with innovative teaching techniques and strengthening its programmes, the magazine said.

The faculty offers a five-year integrated BA LLB (Honours) programme, a two-year post-graduate programme (LLM) in three specialized streams (personal law, corporate law and criminal law) and a Ph.D. programme.
