JMI celebrates International Women's Day 2018

A talk on 'Gender Equality' by H.E. Mr Thorir Ibsen, Ambassador of Iceland to India was the highlight of International Women's Day celebration in Jamia Millia Islamia 's Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women's Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia today. The event was chaired by Prof. Talat Ahmad, Vice Chancellor, Jamia Millia Islamia.

H.E. Ibsen who was the Chief Guest discussed different tools and methods to overcome gender inequality. He specifically mentioned about economic and political empowerment of women in Iceland and explained about the gender-neutral policy adopted by his government.

In his presidential remarks, Prof. Ahmad said that for achieving gender equality the society's mindset has to be changed. He stressed upon educating women at all levels and said that it has to be a collective responsibility to eradicate the gender-biased attitude and ensure inclusiveness.

Prof. Sabiha Hussain, Director, Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women's Studies briefed the gathering about the initiatives taken by the centre towards building awareness for gender equity and empowerment of women.

The talk was concluded with the Vice Chancellor flagging off a march, 'Run for Women's Safety and Dignity' in presence of Ambassador Ibsen. A large number of students carrying banners and posters participated in the run on the university campus.
