JMI Commemorates 70 years of diplomatic relations between India and Russia, holds International Workshop on Russia, India and the State of South Asian Studies

To commemorate the historic occasion of seventy-years of diplomatic relations between India & Russia, an International workshop on "India-Russia Relations" was organized by the Department of Political Science, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI).

The event held on February 6, 2017 at Seminar Room, Department of Political Science was attended by the diplomats of the Embassy of the Russian Federation in New Delhi, Tass News agency, Russian Trade Commissioners, Faculty members & students of the Russian State University for the Humanities (RSUH), Moscow, Russia and JMI.

Prof. Mohammed Badrul Alam and Prof. Alexander Stolyarov from JMI and RSUH respectively acted as moderators for this workshop and Prof. S.A.M. Pasha, Department of Political Science, welcomed the participants.

Students of both the institutions had wide ranging discussions on various aspects of the ties between New Delhi and Moscow. It was proposed that this special relationship which both the countries inherit should not be confined to the diplomats or leaders but be trickled down to the future generations. Additionally, to provide further impetus an MoU has been agreed in principle between JMI and RSUH.
