Media Coordinator's Office
Jamia Millia Islamia

February 28, 2018

Press Release

JMI admission process to close on March 07; 9 new courses introduced

With just a week left to apply for admission to various courses in Jamia Millia Islamia, the examination department is geared up to handle the last minute rush by aspirants from across the country.

Office of the Controller of Examination said that the Online admission form for the session 2018-19 is open in B.Tech and B.Arch, M.Phil/ PhD programmes, UG/PG/Diploma/Certificate/PG Diploma/Advance Diploma (Regular) till March 07, 2018, the last date for submission of online applications.

However applications for admission for classes 6th, 9th and 11th in Jamia schools can be submitted until March 28,

It may also be mentioned here that the university has started 09 new courses from the coming academic session for which also the application are also invited.

The courses are--- Master of Library & Information Science, PG Diploma in Air & space law, Diploma in Korean Language, Certificate in Ticketing & Air Fare Construction, Certificate in Tour guiding & Leadership, Certificate in Escorting & Tour Management, Certificate in Medical and Wellness Tourism, M.Sc. in Disaster Management and Climate Sustainability Studies and PG Diploma in Labour Law.

In addition, a self-financed programme in Jamia Girls Sr. School for Class IX and XI has been started.

Written tests for admission to various courses will be conducted in 6 different cities namely Patna, Lucknow, Srinagar, Guwahati, Calicut and Kolkata apart from Delhi.

The online forms and e-prospectus are available on Office of Controller of Examinations web portal www.jmicoe.in.

Prof Saima Saeed
Media Coordinator