

Globalization and Inequality

An India-Canada Comparison

A symposium organized by
York University and Jamia Millia Islamia University

8-9 June 2015
Assembly Hall
Room 152
Founders College
York University

How has globalization intensified inequality?

What are the social consequences of increasing inequality?

How are people in India and Canada resisting?

All are welcome!

Please RSVP to ycar@yorku.ca

For more information or to view the programme:
ycar@yorku.ca
www.yorku.ca/ycar

This symposium is generously supported by:

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada; Dean's Office, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies; Department of Sociology; York International; Jamia Millia Islamia University; Founders College Master's Office; and Human Endeavour with the support of the York Centre for Asian Research