TWO-DAY NATIONAL CONFERENCE

ON

INTERFAITH DIALOGUES: VIKSIT BHARAT @ 2047

7–8 DECEMBER 2026

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Two-Day National Conference on 'Interfaith Dialogues: Viksit Bharat @ 2047' will explore the significance of religious tolerance, mutual respect, and peaceful coexistence in India's pluralistic society. It will highlight the historical contributions of Sufi saints, Bhakti traditions, and intellectual figures such as Amir Khusrau and Dara Shukoh in fostering cultural synthesis and interreligious understanding.

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

The conference aims to bring together scholars, researchers, and academicians to discuss the historical foundations and contemporary relevance of interfaith dialogue in India. It seeks to promote religious tolerance, mutual understanding, and respect for diverse cultural and spiritual traditions. The conference will explore the role of interfaith cooperation in strengthening national integration, social justice, and community development, and in advancing a more inclusive, harmonious, and resilient society towards the vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047.
