International Women's Day Celebration

Organized by

Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management (DTHM)

Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

The Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management (DTHM), Faculty of Management Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia, successfully organized a programme to celebrate International Women's Day on 6 March 2026 at the Lecture Theatre. The event was organized with the support of Mezzaan-e-Sayyah (Tourism Youth Club) with the objective of recognizing the achievements of women and promoting awareness about women's leadership, empowerment, and contributions to society. The celebration was conducted under the theme “She Leads, She Inspires.”

The programme created an engaging and inspiring environment where students actively participated in various activities designed to celebrate the spirit of womanhood and highlight the role of women as leaders, innovators, and changemakers in society. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of the department, making the celebration vibrant and meaningful.

The programme featured several interactive and competitive activities including a Speech Competition, Essay Writing Competition, and an engaging Rapid Fire Question-Answer Round.

The Speech Competition provided students with an opportunity to express their views on women's empowerment, leadership, and social transformation. Participants shared inspiring thoughts on the contributions of women in different fields and highlighted the importance of gender equality in contemporary society. The winners of the Speech Competition were Afifa Khan (BHM Sem-6th) who secured 1st position, followed by Saina Khan (BTM Sem-2nd) who secured 2nd position, and Ruwaida (MTM Sem-2nd) who secured 3rd position.

The Essay Writing Competition encouraged students to reflect on the role of women in shaping families, communities, and nations. Participants presented thoughtful perspectives on the challenges faced by women as well as the progress made towards equality and empowerment. The winners of the Essay Writing Competition were Labeeba Batool (MTM Sem-2nd) who secured 1st position, Ayesha Khan (B. Voc Sem-2nd) who secured 2nd position, and Samreen Khan (BHM Sem-2nd) who secured 3rd position.

Another highlight of the event was the Rapid-Fire Question-Answer Round, which involved active audience participation. Students enthusiastically answered questions related to notable women personalities, achievements of women in various fields, and milestones in the journey toward gender equality. The round was conducted as a general participation activity for all students, and correct responses were rewarded with prizes, making the session lively and engaging.

The competitions were judged by Dr. Nusrat Yasmeen, Ms. Alisha Waquar, and Ms. Jarina, who appreciated the creativity, confidence, and thoughtful expressions demonstrated by the participants. They commended the students for their enthusiastic participation and encouraged them to continue recognizing and supporting the achievements of women in society. The winners of the competitions were awarded certificates in recognition of their performance and participation.

The event concluded on a positive and inspiring note, celebrating the strength, resilience, and leadership of women. The programme successfully created awareness about women's empowerment while encouraging students to reflect on the role of women in shaping a more inclusive and progressive society. The concluding remarks and vote of thanks were delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Sarah Hussain, Head, Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management, who appreciated the enthusiastic participation of students and the efforts of the organizers in making the celebration meaningful and inspiring.

The Department also expressed its gratitude to Mezbaan-e-Sayyah (Tourism Youth Club) for their support in organizing the event and encouraging student participation. The celebration reinforced the importance of recognizing women's contributions and inspiring future generations under the theme "She Leads, She Inspires."
