ABSTRACT

The body of your abstract begins here. It should be an explicit summary of your presentation that states the problem, the methods used, and the major results and conclusions. Do not include scientific symbols, acronyms, numbers, bullets or lists in the abstract. It should be single-spaced in 12-point Times New Roman.

An abstract is single/multiple paragraphs, without indentation, compendious summary of a paper's substance including research question, background, purpose, methodology, results, and conclusion in 175 to 275 words. The main text, like the author names used Times New Roman font, 14 point for the Author names and 12 point for the remainder of the abstract. Type or paste your text into this files, but remembers to keep the page margins the same as 2.5 cm all round. Paragraphs are justified (straight-edged) on both left and right.

The abstracts will be peer reviewed and authors will be informed about acceptance for presentation via email. Be sure to adhere to the word limitation for the abstract.

The limit for your abstract is one page. Abstracts that do not meet the requirements will be rejected. The organizing committee reserves the right to edit abstracts for clarity or correctness of English, but will consult the author if any significant changes are needed.

If you need to receive a formal acceptance of your abstract in order to be funded to come to the conference, please write this in your e-mail when you submit your abstract and you will receive a prompt reply.
