Notice

I am pleased to inform that the Faculty of Natural Sciences is planning to celebrate National Science Day on 28th February, 2019. This day is celebrated to commemorate Raman Effect, discovery by renowned Indian Scientist Dr. C.V. Raman. It is also celebrated across the country with the objectives of popularizing science and creating awareness about the importance of science amongst the youngsters. As someone aptly said that 'Science is simply the word we use to describe a method of organizing out curiosity.' Therefore, it is important to generate scientific aptitude and logical thinking in the daily life of the people and celebration of the National Science day could be utilized in creating such environment.

In this regards we are planning to have different scientific activities to create awareness among graduate/Post graduate/Research students. The activities would mainly include:

- Visit to different Research Labs
- Screening of Scientific movies
- Popular Science lectures from the eminent personalities
- Recognition of faculties for their exceptional scientific/research contributions

These activities would surely be able to ignite young minds and encourage our faculty members.

A meeting of all HODs/Director of F/O Natural Sciences will be held on 11/02/2019 at 11.30 a.m. on this regard in the office of the undersigned.

I would like to request your contribution in the above mentioned activities for the proper execution of the program. All are requested to please make it convenient to attend the meeting on scheduled date & time.

Your proactive participation will be highly appreciated.
