

04 - 05 November 2019

DAY 01 04.11.2019

introduction to the workshop [14:00 -14:30]

intekhab Alam

Mapping Informality [14:30 - 16:00]

aravind unni and intekhab alam

Urbanization and its intersection with poverty in cities[16:30 - 18:00]

aravind unni

INDIGENOUS URBANISM '19

DAY 02 05.11.2019

Field visit [14:00 -16:00]

curated by meenaxi

Panel Discussion and Presentation [16:30 -18:00]

students of M. Arch (Urban Regeneration)

Aravind Unni has completed his B.Arch from Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi and M.S. Arch from University of California-Berkeley, and is currently pursuing his PhD on Urban Social Movements from Tata Institute of Social Sciences in Mumbai. His core area of interest for research and action on urbanization and its intersection with poverty in cities.

Meenaxi is working with IGSSS since the last 10 years. She is leading the community engagement process of direct interventions with urban poor community groups in informal settlements/ bastis of Delhi for land rights. She is also leading community group networks in more than 30 communities for the cause.

Intekhab Alam is Assistant Professor at F/O Architecture and Ekistics, Jamia Millia Islamia. He has a work experience of more than seven years, in the domain of heritage, ecology and planning. Prior to joining Jamia he has worked in Ladakh region and other Himalayan cities for more than two years in the field of Architecture and Urban Planning. Currently he is writing a book entitled 'Leh- Building an Urban Database'.