A programme may be comprised of some of the following components: theory courses, laboratory courses, field work, project, industrial training etc. as prescribed by the concerned Board of Studies/ Committee of Studies and approved by the Academic Council. For various components, the weightage of marks will be as follows: For All Faculties of the University For Theory (UG & PG) Courses: Internal Assessment 40% of allocated marks Semester End Examination 60% of allocated marks <ul style="list-style-type: none">The minimum passing mark will be 40% in each component separately. Student failed in IA component will not be allowed to appear in the final exam of this course. The student will have to reappear in the Internal assessment and University exam of that course next year.For lab courses where internal assessment has a weightage of 50% and University Examinations has a weightage of 50%, it will remain same.Duration of theory exams will be of 02 hours instead of the existing 03 hours w.e.f. academic session 2025-26. The question papers shall also be prepared accordingly. The above amendment will not be applicable on the courses governed by their respective regulatory bodies such as AICTE, COA, DCI, NCTE, BCI etc. The criteria in this regard as approved by the regulatory bodies in marking for these two components (university examination and internal assessment) will be followed.

All concerned are requested to take a note of it.
