I am a dedicated and detail-oriented researcher who is particularly interested not only in the core area of my expertise which is Islamic studies but also in the field of education where my focus lies in fostering a positive and engaging learning environment while promoting academic excellence and personal growth among students. I strive to create a challenging and engaging learning environment in which students become life-long scholars and learners. My interest lies in enhancing the efficacy of pedagogical tools in hand to make the learning environment not only conducive, integrative and understandable but also impactful with the aim of developing long term learning, and growth among students.

I am hardworking individual, focused and eager to bring new vigor into the domain of learning and imparting knowledge.
