1. General Information

Jamia Millia Islamia was established in 1920 by a group of nationalist Muslim intelligentsia at Aligarh (Uttar Pradesh). Its campus shifted from Aligarh to Delhi in 1925 and the foundation stone of the present campus was laid on 1 March 1930. Since then, the university has been expanding and has become a premier educational institution of the country. Recognising its contributions in the field of teaching, research and extension work, the University Grants Commission (UGC) bestowed the "deemed university" status to it in 1962, and it was designated a Central University in 1988. Jamia Millia Islamia was declared a minority educational institution by the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions on 22 February 2011

Jamia School was established by great academicians and visionaries like Dr. Zakir Hussain, Maulana Mehmood Hasan, Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar and Gandhiji who dedicated their lives to the wholesome development of the youth of our country. The multi-dimensional growth of the students has been the top priority in the educational endeavors of Jamia Schools, an integral part of the Jamia Millia Islamia, a Central University. The aim of the schools is to give students a sound intellectual, physical and moral education, so that they turn out to be responsible and upright citizens. The aim of the school is to develop the personality of the students and to inculcate in them a sense of self-reliance and self-confidence. There is limited hostel accommodation for outstation male students of its Schools.

In the School there are six hostels called Manzil namely Saad Manzil, Aslam Manzil, Jauhar Manzil, Iqbal Manzil, Shafiq Manzil & Mahmood Manzil. The total strength of the hostel is about 350.
