JMI organizes activities as part of Anti Ragging Day

The Department of Mechanical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering & Technology, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organised various activities as part of Anti Ragging Day on 17th August, 2023. The department organized Poster Making and Logo Designing competitions for the students. The activities were organized to sensitize students towards the social evils of ragging and also provide engineering students the opportunity to portray their talent in creative arts and painting. The students registered online using a google form and submitted their posters and logos both online and offline. All the participants got participation certificates and the students who made the first three best posters were given a token of appreciation with the certificates. The students who were facilitated by the HoD, Department of Mechanical Engineering are Ms. Firdous Fatima, Zeeshan Hashmi and Anshul Panchal. The event was organised by Prof Sabah Khan and Dr. Mohd Javaid.
