JMI suspends Jamia Middle School Physical Education Teacher Haris ul Haq for alleged fundraising from students and financial misappropriation

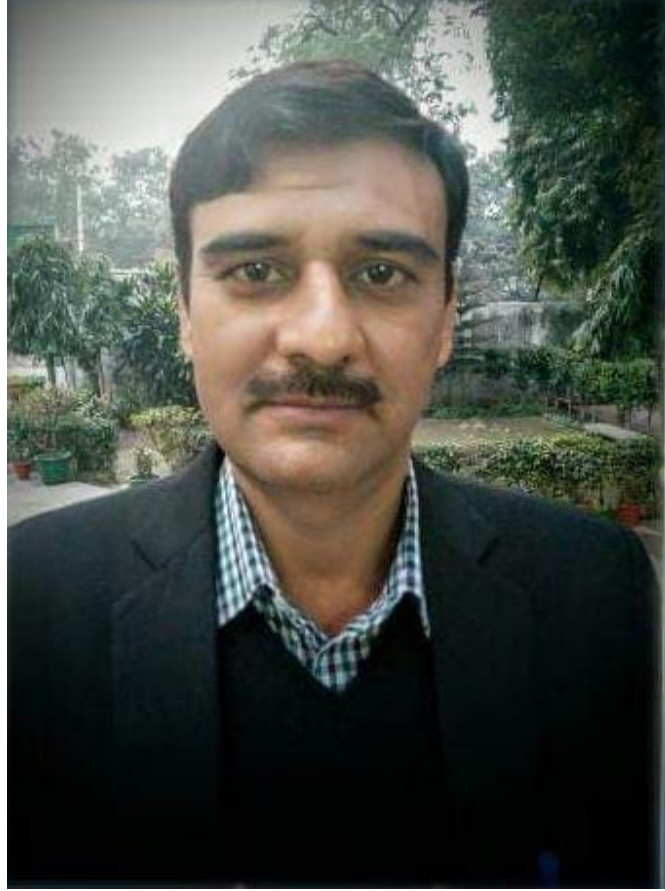

Mr. Haris ul Haq, a Physical Education Teacher of Jamia Middle School has been suspended pending inquiry by the competent authority of Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) for his alleged association in fundraising from the students of the school for earthquake-affected people of Turkey without approval/prior permission of the competent authority in violation of the CCS conduct rules.

A police complaint dated 31st July 2023 was filed against Haris ul Haq by the University at Jamia Nagar Police Station for cheating, criminal breach of trust and criminal misappropriation. In the complaint it was alleged that Haris ul Haq siphoned off Rs. 1.40 lakh in the garb of collecting money by misrepresenting for affected people of Turkey Earthquake. It was also alleged that the money was collected by deceiving the students under a false pretext and the entire money had been siphoned off for personal gains.

The matter was placed before the Executive Council of the university in its meeting held on 04th August, 2023. The EC vide resolution no. 11 has resolved that disciplinary action may be initiated against Haris ul Haq as per rules. The EC also asked the University to take appropriate action for recovery of money/funds and pursue criminal complaint as per provisions of law.

It is also stated that there have been several complaints of misbehaviour, negligent attitude towards duty and insubordination against Haris ul Haq. He was suspended in the year 2010 also for misconduct.
