JMI's Centre for Comparative Religions and Civilizations organizes Orientation for MA Batch 2026–2028

New Delhi, August 12, 2026

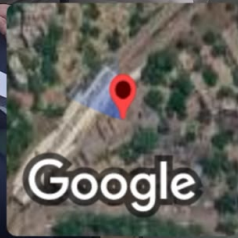

The Centre for Comparative Religions and Civilizations, Jamia Millia Islamia, organised an Orientation Programme for the newly admitted students of its MA programme (2026–2028) on 10th August 2026 at 11:00 a.m. in CCRC. The event welcomed the new batch and provided students with an opportunity to interact with the faculty and familiarize themselves with the Centre, its academic framework and institutional ethos.

Prof. Meher Fatima Hussain, the Director, Centre for Comparative Religions and Civilizations, welcomed the students and spoke about the rich history and legacy of Jamia Millia Islamia. She highlighted the contributions of the University's founding figures and drew attention to Jamia's commitment to a "Clean Jamia, Green Jamia and Plastic-Free Jamia." Students were also familiarized with the observance of important Government of India days and institutional initiatives and encouraged to contribute positively to the academic and cultural life of the centre and the university.

The programme then progressed with a presentation by Dr. Srishti Pandey, introducing the students to the Centre and its faculty. She also provided an overview of the redesigned MA curriculum, aligned with NEP 2020, and apprised students with the academic calendar of the university and with the academic requirements in class, including adhering to the mandatory 75 percent attendance. The Centre's commitment to maintaining a safe and inclusive academic environment was reiterated, with zero tolerance towards sexual harassment and ragging.

Faculty member Dr. Ahmad Sohaib spoke about the academic journey and evolution of the Centre, highlighting how the redesigned curriculum seeks to equip students with research skills and an understanding of research ethics. Dr. Md. Chingiz Khan also welcomed the students and emphasized the importance of punctuality and regularity in academic life. The orientation concluded on a warm and memorable note, marking the beginning of the M.A. students' academic journey in the university.
