Press Release

JMI VC releases Journal "Tadris Nama"- Journal of Academy of Professional Development of Urdu Medium Teachers

Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) Vice chancellor Prof. Najma Akhtar (Padma Shri) today released the 9th issue of the Academy of Professional Development of Urdu Medium Teachers (APDUMT), JMI Journal titled 'Tadris Nama'.

She congratulated the officials of the Academy for the publication of the well-produced Journal covering a wide spectrum. She said Urdu teachers would feel enlightened by reading the articles included in the issue.

Prof. Akhtar said that promotion of Urdu language & literature is one of the main objectives of JMI. Teachers and officials of the university need to pay special attention to it and the academy needs to expand its scope.

She also highlighted that the Academy had recently signed an MoU with SCERT Delhi and it is the need of the hour that it should also look for agreements with SCERT of other states too to fulfil its objectives. She added that the Academy also needs to focus on translation of academic books which will be helpful to the teachers for teaching various subjects in Urdu.

Hony. Director of the Academy, Prof. Shahzad Anjum, said that the objectives of the academy are to strengthen the teaching skills of Urdu medium teachers, provide teaching materials, curriculum and preparation of reference books. He said that "Tadris Nama" is a link in this chain. He also said that the academy is fully committed to its core objectives and trying to perform its duties in the best possible manner under the patronage of the Vice Chancellor who regularly guides and gives invaluable suggestions.

The current issue of "Tadris Nama" consists of articles related to the teaching of ghazal, poem, qasida, masnavi, rubai, story, novel, fiction, sketch, drama and elegies. ADUMT, in addition to these imparts training to students, the teacher and contributes towards the methods of developing communication skills while mitigating problems of language teaching at the school level as the teaching of poems and prose pieces.

Dr. Wahid Nazar, faculty of APDUMT compered the programme which ended with a formal vote of thanks to the Chair and the guests.
