Registrar, JMI, administers integrity pledge to employees as part of observance of the Vigilance Awareness Week, 2025

New Delhi, October 27, 2025

Given that corruption poses a significant barrier to the economic, political, and social advancement of the nation, employees of Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) today committed to an integrity pledge aimed at fostering a corruption-free institution and country. The pledge was administered by the Registrar of JMI, Prof. Md. Mahtab Alam Rizvi in both Hindi and English at the lawns of the main administrative block of the university. The pledge was administered as part of 'Vigilance Awareness Week' being observed in the university to emphasize the importance of integrity in public life and demonstrate its commitment to implement and enforce the policy of 'Zero Tolerance against Corruption'.

Teaching faculty members and non-teaching staff of JMI, pledged, among other things, to promote ethical business practices and foster a culture of honesty and integrity; not to offer or accept bribes; commitment towards good corporate governance based on transparency, accountability and fairness; adherence to relevant laws, rules and compliance mechanisms in the conduct of business; adopt a code of ethics for all employees; sensitize employees of laws, regulations, relevant to their work for honest discharge of their duties; provide grievance redressal and Whistle Blower mechanism for reporting grievances and fraudulent activities and to protect the rights and interests of stakeholders and the society at large.

The Central Vigilance Commission (CVC), as part of its efforts to promote probity in public life and to achieve a corruption-free society, observes Vigilance Awareness Week every year.
