Delegation from Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Seoul, Visits Jamia Millia Islamia

New Delhi, November 18, 2026

A delegation from Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (CHUFS), Seoul, Republic of Korea, visited Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) to explore opportunities for academic and institutional collaboration between the two universities.

The delegation comprised Prof. Jin Jeong-Ran, Head, Department of Korean, and Prof. Lee Min-Woo, Dean, Graduate School, Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Seoul.

The delegates first visited the Department of Foreign Languages, JMI, where they interacted with faculty members and students of the Department. Prof. Jin Jeong-Ran delivered a lecture titled "India–Korea Relations and the Growing Interest in the Korean Language." The lecture was coordinated by Dr. Nawnit Kumar, Assistant Professor, Korean, Department of Foreign Languages, JMI.

In her lecture, Prof. Jin highlighted the historical and cultural connections between India and Korea, tracing their origins to exchanges that began more than 2,000 years ago. She also emphasised the growing relevance of learning the Korean language in the context of expanding educational, cultural, and economic engagement between the two countries.

Subsequently, a meeting was held under the chairmanship of the Vice-Chancellor of Jamia Millia Islamia, Prof. Mazhar Asif, in the presence of the Registrar, Prof. Md. Mahtab Alam Rizvi. The meeting focused on strengthening mutual cooperation between JMI and Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies in areas of mutual interest.

Welcoming the delegation, Prof. Mazhar Asif highlighted the growing interest in the Korean language among students in India, particularly at JMI. He expressed the University's commitment to expanding academic and cultural engagement with Korean institutions.

Prof. Md. Mahtab Alam Rizvi, Registrar, JMI, further underlined the possibilities of institutional collaboration between the two universities, including academic exchange, research cooperation, faculty and student mobility, and cultural programmes.

The meeting was attended by Prof. Iqtidar Mohd. Khan, Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Languages, JMI; Prof. Ushvinder Popli, Dean, International Relations, JMI; Prof. Saima Saeed, Chief Public Relations Officer, JMI; Prof. Md. Faizullah Khan, Head, Department of Foreign Languages, JMI; Dr. Nawnit Kumar, Assistant Professor, Korean, JMI; and Ms. Unnati Panjikar, Assistant Professor, Russian, JMI, along with the visiting delegates.

The visit marks an important step towards deepening academic cooperation and people-to-people ties between Jamia Millia Islamia and Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, and reflects JMI's continued commitment to promoting Korean language, culture, and India–Korea educational relations.
