

Department of Educational Studies, JMI concludes one-day Workshop for its postgraduate students

New Delhi, November 11, 2025

The Department of Teacher Training and Non-Formal Education (Institute of Advanced Studies in Education), Faculty of Education, Jamia Millia Islamia, in collaboration with the Department of Educational Studies (D.E.S.), successfully concluded the one-day Workshop organized for postgraduate students of M.A. Early Childhood Development (1st and 3rd Semester), M.Ed. (1st and 3rd Semester), M.A. Educational Planning and Administration (1st and 3rd Semester), and M.A. Education (1st and 3rd Semester).

The Valedictory Session, held at 4:30 PM, began with a soulful Tilawat-e-Qur'an by Mr. Obaidullah, setting a serene and reflective tone for the closing ceremony. The session was attended by esteemed faculty members and students who participated with great enthusiasm.

The event was honoured by the presence of Dr. Samina Bano, Director, Residential Coaching Academy, and Head, Department of Psychology, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. In her address, Dr. Bano spoke about the importance of sensitization and its crucial role in education today. She emphasized that sensitivity and understanding form the foundation of effective teaching, helping educators connect with all learners meaningfully. She also congratulated the students for their active involvement and appreciated the organizing team for successfully conducting such a purposeful and impactful workshop.

Dr. Saurabh Ray, Course Coordinator & Workshop Convener, Assistant Professor, M.Ed. Special Education (Visual Impairment), thanked the Chief Guest, Dr. Samina Bano, for gracing the occasion and appreciated the presence of all faculty members and participants. He emphasized that every child is special and that teachers must be prepared to meet the diverse needs of all learners in line with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. He also shared that this workshop followed two successful programs earlier organized at the Child Guidance Centre for parents and teachers, continuing Jamia's efforts toward inclusive education.

Dr. Patella Ramakrishna, Assistant Professor, Special Education (Visual Impairment), also attended the session and commended the initiative, encouraging students to continue learning through such collaborative engagements.

Dr. Sumita Bhangu, Assistant Professor, Special Education (Specific Learning Disability), thanked everyone for their presence and congratulated the students and organizers for the success of the event.

A token of gratitude was presented to each guest as a mark of appreciation for their valuable insights and contribution to the event.

The ceremony also included the distribution of certificates to the participants by the esteemed guests, marking the successful completion of the workshop.

The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks presented by Ms. Anshika Gupta and Ms. Yogita Kain, the anchors of the event, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all the guests, faculty members, and participants for making the program truly encouraging and memorable.

The workshop was organized and coordinated by the students of M.Ed. Special Education (SLD & VI), 3rd Semester, Department of Teacher Training and Non-Formal Education (IASE), under the group name "Divyang Warriors." Their teamwork and dedication ensured the smooth and impactful conclusion of the program.

Prof. Saima Saeed

Chief Public Relations Officer

8 B

FREE ROWS

